

SPIRIT CONSULTATIONS & MEDIUMSHIP SITTINGS GUIDELINES

Private Sittings are a form of Spirit Communication – you may have seen demonstrations on the public platform. The only difference is that this time it is being done in private.

Any attempt to communicate with Spirit is, by its very nature, purely experimental and therefore, results can never be guaranteed. When choosing a Medium to work with finding someone by referral, recommendation or positive personal intuition are good guidelines to follow.

A Private sitting should be both evidential in nature and an enjoyable experience. It is not an opportunity to participate in an in-depth discussion about Spiritualism in general. If this is what you want then it can be arranged at another appointment time.

Here are the answers to some questions you may have concerning your Spirit Consultation or Mediumship Sitting:

Will I have my fortune told?

No. It is not the role of a medium to “tell fortunes”. What they will do is attempt to provide you with evidence of the survival of the human soul after death.

Is it frightening?

Not in the slightest. The people who may wish to communicate with you from the Spirit World are, in the main, people who knew you and cared for you when they were alive on earth.

What if they tell me something I don't want to know?

Spirit people, by natural law, are bound to communicate in terms of truth and love, therefore they will not tell you anything that is going to worry or upset you.

Can my deceased loved one tell my future?

No. They cannot foretell your future as your future is something that does not yet exist. However, because they are unburdened by physical minds and material influences, they can sometimes take a much broader and long-sighted view of the likely outcome or impart some wisdom into a situation.

It is not the role of your deceased loved one to give you guidance, direction or make decisions or choices on your behalf.

Does a medium know everything about me?

The medium knows absolutely nothing about you before the sitting begins.

During the sitting the medium will only know those facts related by Spirit. However, just as they would while they were here, your Spirit friends will respect your privacy absolutely and nothing of a very private or personal nature will be revealed – unless it is important to the communication.

Mediums very seldom remember much of what they have said after a sitting has been concluded, further ensuring the private and confidential nature of a sitting.

Should I try to think about the person or people I want a message from?

You can if you wish, maybe even send out some positive thoughts to your departed loved ones, but there is absolutely no guarantee that a message from any particular individual will come through.

Remember we are completely dependent upon the wishes of the individual Spirit to communicate. We cannot “call them up”- it is they who decide whether to communicate or not. Concentration or the desire to have one specific person to communicate is not recommended, it can limit the ability of others who are there to talk with you.

Is there anything I can do to make my sitting more successful?

Keep an open and positive frame of mind. Try not to limit your thoughts to one or two people, your message could be from pretty well anyone you have known (or even people who passed over before you were born). Be honest with the medium, if you can't understand a part of your message, say so, and the medium will try to clarify it for you.

Be honest with yourself, don't say 'No' just to “test” the medium, and don't say 'Yes' just to be helpful.

Keep these few simple guidelines in mind, and your sitting will most likely be an experience to remember.

At IntuiChic our policy is that in the unlikely event of no communication whatsoever being made during your appointment you will be issued with a full refund, less a $20 deposit.

Please remember, contact with a specific individual cannot be guaranteed or pre-determined.

The duration of your consultation is approximately 60-75 minutes and your personal investment is $199.
